

Section 60 – Purpose

Storm water management is vital in promoting the health, safety, and general welfare of the public. It is the intent of this article; in an effort to minimize the dangers of flooding to life and property that certain runoff control devices be provided as land area are developed or redeveloped. The design criteria for storm water conveyance and management facilities are outlined in this article.